EMERALD BEATS THE NEW COLONIA.

Only a Minute and Thirtyfive Seconds Elapsed Time Between Them.

New York Yacht Club's Regatta Sailed in a Fresh Nor'west Breeze.

Battle Royal to a Finish Between Big Schooners and Thirty-Footers, AQUERO CARRIES AWAY HER MAST.

Vallant Winners of the Contests Are the Emerald, Iroquois, Norota, Choctaw, Wasp and

In a rattling west-nor'west breeze that filled the lower bay and the sea off Sandy Hook with green wrinkles and white curis the old cup-hunting sloop Colonia made her debut as a schooner, in the annual regatta of the New York Yacht Club yesterday, and compelled the invincible Emerald to strain her sticks to keep up her record of

It was not much of a regatta as regattas go, because most of the classes did not schooners was one of the finest marine shows ever seen in New York waters, and that crack amateur skipper. J. Rogers Maxwell, because his yacht, the Emerald, won chiefly through his good judgment and clever handling.

The Colonia in her new shape is a vertice.

The colonia in her new shape is a vertice.

The colonia in her new shape is a vertice.

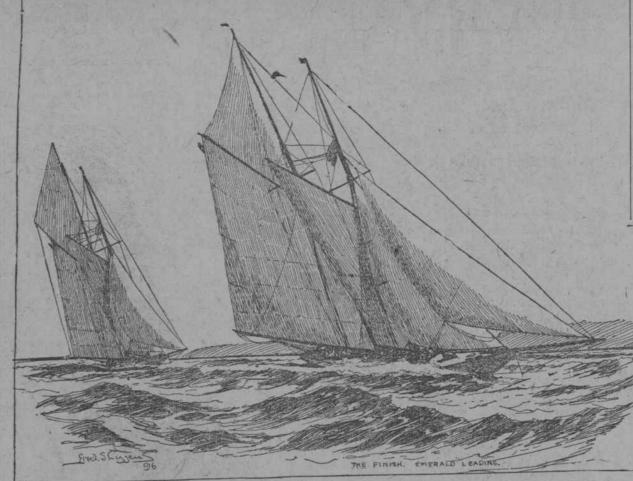

The Colonia in her new shape is a veritable skimmer of the seas, and when her wather the Hook bell bloox, and so had to make a short board on the port tack, by which she lost more ground. At the South west Spit there was a good minute and all betteen them, and so the Wasp was left alone in her glory. The schooner Ramona was to race in the mixed class against the sloop Wayward, but she did not make her appearance down the buy at all.

The preparatory gun was fired from Commodore Brown's flagship, the steam yacht Spirin, at if o'clock sharp, and the yachts. The Colonia set her baby jib topsall, but speedly took if in, for the wind. The Colonia set her baby jib topsall and shivered list full powers for the benefit of the New York Yuch Yuch Hollon, and there was no need to wait for a favoring zephyr. The Colonia and the Emeraid had clubtopsalls aloft, but the others made a good guess that working topsalls would be heavy enough. The thirty-footers had single reefs in their mainsails and were whizzing about with the toulen and good subtly of horse at twillight.

The first starting gun, at 11:10, sent away the sloops, it was a reach down the bay and though and shower had not share the bay and the cut down her opponent's lead by a half was carried away, but it did her no horse whith the Uvira. Wasp, Wayward and Choctaw following in order as named. The moment they had crossed the Wasp made a sharp luff to windward and speedlify wathered her leaders, though the Norota validy set up a jibtopsall to pull her along.

Sirking Plumbers Are Winning.

fill, but the race between the two big TWO SCENES IN YESTERDAY'S REGATTA OF THE NEW YORK YACHT CLUB

THE THIRTY-FOOTERS.

The thirty-footers swarmed down at the sails get a proper stretching, her crew third gun like a flock of birds, and the sails get a proper stretching, her crew brought into first-class racing shape and her sailing master. Charlie Barr, knows the humor of her, she is going to make a deal of trouble for everything in her class. Her debut as a schooner yesterday was a gorgeous success, and her owner. Clarence Postley, a yachting man of the finest spirit, deserves to be warmly congratulated.

It was a trying day for a raw crew and a new boat, for the wind was fresh throughout, and at times it swept out of the Raritan Bay in squally puffs of dangerous weight. The Colonia lugged her clubtop-there are not as the third gun like a flock of birds, and the Wawa whirled across the line in the smoke, followed by the Vaquero. Muside and Esperanza. As the club steamer followed the big fellows, there was little oportunity to watch the work of the third gamely in the strong wind and carried their canvas finely. At the Quickstep bell buoy their order was Wawa, Musme, Vaquero, Mai. Hera, Asabi, Esperanza and Departure. The Wawa was well out of the tangle astern of her and was making beautiful astern was the class of the warm of the warm of the work of the third gun like a flock of birds, and the Wawa whirled across the line in the smoke, followed by the Vaquero. Muside and Esperanza. As the club steamer followed by the Vaquero. Muside and Esperanza. As the club steamer followed by the Vaquero. Muside and Esperanza as trying family to watch the work of the third gun like a flock of birds, and the Wawa whirled across the line in the smoke, followed by the Vaquero. Muside arches was little oportunity to watch the work of the third gun like a flock of blood and the subject as the club steamer followed by the Vaquero. Muside and Esperanza and been was little oportunity to watch the work of the third gun like a flock of blowd the Salver was like a flock of blowd the Salve and one mixed, and there was also a special rance for 30-footers, in which there were table for 30-footers, in which there were table from book one. The two big schooners flattened sheets and rushed say on the starboard tack, and then the Emerald began to walk out on the Colonial's weather quarter like. And then the Emerald began to walk out on the Colonial's weather quarter like and then taked by a case of the starboard tack. The course of the starboard tack and then the Emerald began to walk out on the Colonial's weather quarter like and then taked by a case of the starboard tack. The course of the starboard tack are well from book of the colonial's weather sheet of the starboard tack are well from book with a starboard tack. The course of the co

SECOND CLA	SS-SCHOONE	RS; RACING TRIM
Name Racing Menaure, merald 90.47 1 clonia	Section 1		Elapsed	Cor'cted
Name. Measure.	Start.	Finish.	Time.	Time.
morald 90.47 1	1:17:33	3:07:56	3:50:23	3:50:23
olonia	1:07:06	3:09:04	3:51:58	The same of
			NE	TO COLUMN AND
roquofa	1:16:56	3:36:29	4:19:33	4:19:33
requels 82.28 1rtle 74.46	1:21:45	Did not finish.
			M.
morita	Withdrew.
morita 74.82	1:20:17	3:36:03	4:15:46	4:15:42
Vira 47.13	1:10:43	Disabled.
Grota 41.64	1:10:36	8:29:35	4:18:59	4:11:09
SIXTH CL.	ASC STOOPS	CRITICING TRIM
hoetnw	1:12:24	3:24:38	4:12:12	4:12:12
hoetaw	11:11:24	Did not finish.
MIXE) CLASS—CRU	ISING TRIM.
Vayward 05.58	11:11:39	3:34:30	4:22:51	4:22:51
48D D1.87	1:10:58	3:42:51	4:31:58	4:21:23
THIRTY	-FOOTEBS-SI	PECIAL RACE
Iera THIRTY	11:31:00	Did not finish. 1:58:54
Vawa	11:31:00	1:58:54	2:27:54
aperanza	11:31:00 11:31:00	2:01:24	2:30:24
aquero III	11:31:00	Did not finish.
[0]	11:01:00	Did not finish.
eparture	11:31:00	2:06:39	2:35:30	-
Crisinia	11:31:00	1:50:54 2:00:39	2:28:54
unhi	11:31:00	2:00:39	2:29:39	No. of Contract of
The Wasp, as the table shows, v	rent up into th	se class with the		order to give or a rase. The Vaquero carried aw	ar her mu at 1	n one of the puffs	and the Uv	rira lost her Possible Outcome of the Disturbance Wednesday Night at Cambridge.

Students Disregarded His Warning by Another Demonstration Yesterday.

tion of Jerome F. Grosh, the Harvard student who accidentally shot himself in the room of a fellow student at Felton Hall on Tuesday afternoon, is considered very serious at the Cambridge Hospital, where he now lies. His mother arrived today from her home in Toledo, and his father and brother are on their way to Cambridge. Grosh was cleaning a revolver when it exploded and the bullet entered his right breast, passing through the lung.

Tug Sunk for No Known Cause. The towboat America, owned by Dutch co., of No. 62 South street, and in com-and of Captain George Brandon, while oored between plers 16 and 17. East River, ongside of the Ward line steamship Segur-tea, sank shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday orning. Captain Brandon and the erew, the the exception of James York, the en-neer, and John Smith, the freman, were hore at the time of the accident. York was takened by a sudden rush of water about Co., of No. 62 South street, and in com-

Still Discussing Venezuela endon, June 11.-In the House of Com mons to-day George N. Curzon, Under Secretary of Foreign Affairs, said the negotiations between Great Britain and the United States upon the Venezuelan question would proceed, but that the government could not make any further statement in regard to the matter at present.

The same last, for a may cover and a support of the windows are free in through it all, never bent a sick may be supported as single marked by single marked as single marked as single marked as single marked by single marked as single marked by single marked as single marked by single marked as single marked as single marked by single marked as single marked as single marked as single marked by single marked as single marked as about the selection of a Summer place in last night were taken into the Cambridge Police Court to-day and fined as follows:

Goldthwaite Higginson Dorr, '97, of Orange,
N. J., who rooms at No. 50 Plympton street, and Arthur Thomas Pilling, '98, of Washington, D. C., who rooms at No. 11 Perkins Hall, both charged with assaulting an officer, $50, and Clay Stone Briggs, a special student, whose home is in Galveston,
Texas, and who rooms at No. 17 Divinity
Hall, charged with discharging firearms, $15. Fellow-students paid the fines of the three boys. THE TOURNAL of next will be Miss Loretto Gertrude Smith, of Harvard Student's Fate Doubtful. most comprehensive Cambridge, Mass., June 11.—The condition of Jerome F. Grosh, the Harvard directory of the most desirable Summer Resorts ever published by a newspaper - something of definite value about each.

Have Received a Postal Card Signed

with His Name.

Edward Dorlan's younger brother, Frank, who runs the elevator in the Real Estate Exchange, Brooklyn, and a friend of the THE JOURNAL will be family went over to bring home the remains. Both agreed that the body was that of Edward Dorlan.

BRIDE OF THE CHURCH. $5 per pair. Miss Loretto G. Smith to Become One of the Ladies of the Sacred Heart To-day. The interesting ceremony of the prise d'habit, or taking of the veil, will be per-formed in the chapel of the Convent of the Sacred Heart this morning. The postulant this city, a relative of Bishop Fariey, who will officiate. Miss Smith is nineteen years old, and was Miss Smith is nineteen years old, and was graduated from the Sacred Heart two years ago. In accordance with the rules of the religious order she has spent three months in the novitiate at Kenwood, near Albany, reflecting upon her resolve to become one of the Ladies of the Sacred Heart.

About ten members of the order and one hundred friends of the postulant will be present at to-day's ceremony, which will begin at 9 a. m. Miss Smith will be dressed as a bride, with veil and floral wreath. She will be led up the centre alsie to the prie dieu, or kneeding beach, to the singling of the choir, with an accompaniment of organ or harp. She will be preceded by her two little nieces, Marle and Marguerite O'Keefe, six and eight years old, respectively, who will carry the basket containing the religious habit for the postulant. Father O'Keefe, of the Puulist Fathers, will preach the sermon, at the conclusion of which Miss Smith will be led to the aliar railing, where Bishop Farley will bless the habit. Then he will put the matter.

Russell.

Remarks About Lillian

Rockville Centre Wednesday afternoon was that of their son, brother and nephew, Edward Dorlan, or a stranger.

The body was that of a man who shot himself in Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, Wednesday of last week. It was exposed at the Philadelphia Morgue, and Thomas T. Dollard, manufacturer of sepring beds, at No. 1493 North Second street, in the Quaker City, viewed the corpse and sald he thought it was that of Edward Dorlan, matter.

Mr. Steger, a few days ago, in an interview, reflected upon the future career of Lillian Russell, whom he placed in the cated her son Joseph, who is thirteen years of Lillian Russell, whom he placed in the she disposed of the plunder. The family resided at Youkers.

On July 18 Samuel Dimond's jewelry store, at No. 23 Riverdale avenue, in that the Philadelphia Morgue, and Thomas T. to resign after a brief but tempestuous later who will be eliminated from the play.

Steger is under contract to appear in the story of Dimond, the unfortunate that the problem of the play is under contract to appear in the story of Dimond, the unfortunate did they gain any information about the robbery.

A grown daughter of Mrs. Marinco noti-

THE 30 FOOTERS

a former employe of his, Mrs. Dollard, who had known Dorlan well, positively identified the remains, and so the Coroner turned the body over to the Dollards, who ordered it prepared for shipment and telegraphed Henry E. Dorlan, of Brooklyn, that his son was dead.

much attention as a $3.00 Shoe, to 17,

LACE .

SHOES $ 50

Every pair is made with handsewed welt, which is the most expensive and the best way of mak- mer wear), ing shoes.

No other dealer can manufacture these shoes by this process and sell them at less than $4 to

Store Open Saturday Evening Until 10 o'Clock

A. J. CAMMEYER, 6th Ave., cor. 20th St.

Shoe Dep't.

Ladies' Oxford Ties. Tan—opera toe—pointed tips—hand sewed, value $3,50. Black Kid-patent leather tipped and trimmed,

> $2.50. White Canvas, $2.50.

Lord & Taylor,

DORLAN MAY BE ALIVE. STEGER ASKED TO RESIGN. TAUGHT HER SON THEFT. His Friends Thought They Buried Him, but Manager Lederer Objects to the Tenor's Joe Marinco Stole Jewelry, His Mother Pawned It, His Sister Told, and the Old

Woman Was Convicted. tenement house at No. 139 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn would like to know is whether the corpse which they identified, brought on from Philadelphia, wept over and finally buried in their family lot at Rockville Centre Wednesday afternoon was that of their son, brother and neobey. Ed.

robbery.

A grown daughter of Mrs. Marinco notified the authorities that her little brother Joseph had been the robber. This daughter said she saw her mother extract a number of diamond rings, watches and some money from a flower pot. The mother said Josie had brought them home, and she afterward pawned them in New York. The daughter then notified the police. The boy was sent to the House of Refuge.

Mystery of an Illinois River. Moline, Ill., June 11.-A badly decomposed body, thought to be that of a travelling man, was taken from the river here last night. A railroad coupling pin was in one of the pockets of the cont, and a heavy stone was fastened inside the trousers. A key-ring hore a tag, on which was the following: Return to Mooney & Boland Detective Agency, New York and Chicago: $1 reward." On the reverse side was "C., 7,036," and a maltese cross. On the man's linen were the marks "F" and "4,283."

Men's Negligee Shirts.

Another illustration of Up-todate storekeeping. Where else in town can you secure such value as this?

50 DOZEN Laundered Negligee Shirts,

Stiff Collars and Cuffs, made of No line of Shoes has received as Imported Woven Madras, sizes 14

98c.;

Usual price, 1.50. COMPLETE ASSORTMENT OF Colored Shirts.

Soft Bosoms, with Detachable Collars and Cuffs, at POPULAR PRICES.

Ladies Gloves.

Suéde-Glacé-Chamois, (mousquetaire,button or laceodd shades-useful for sum-

> 50 cts. per pair.

Lord & Taylor, Broadway & 20th St.

Have You

Got your Summer Hat yet? McCann's golyon Similar Taylor and Tourist Hats, Cool Straws, Money saved, McCann's Men's Hats, 210 Bowery, between Prince and Spring.